Julie is a leader, motivator and a passionate teacher of all things positivity. Heart-centered leadership and enthusiasm are her trademarks. She brings a high level of energy and passion to every group she engages. Julie weaves personal anecdotes with relevant calls to action for each specific audience.

Julie brings 25 years of business experience in Sales, Sales Leadership and Marketing, including 19 years at The Hershey Company building business, leading teams and developing people. This experience is the foundation for connecting and engaging with clients around their real business challenges and opportunities. Julie has worked with clients across a wide variety of industries to drive positive change into their organizations.

In addition to keynote speaking, Julie leads our Training team at The Jon Gordon Companies, and is the co-creator (along with Jon Gordon) of our Power of Positive Leadership training program. Julie focuses her sessions on helping each organization, team and individual build more positive minds, teams and cultures.
