

Kate Leavell

Topic Expertise:

Leadership
Positive Culture
Structure
Accountability

Kate is a Master National Coaches' Education and Positive Coaching Alliance Trainer with a passion for leading and breeding success through positive culture, structure, and accountability. Her writing on the movement to improve our youth sports culture, effective coaching tactics, and positive leadership has been featured in a variety of national publications.

Kate has helped develop winning teams in every place she has lived and specializes in team-building, effective communication, and program growth.

She lives in Atlanta with her three kids and her husband of almost 20 years, where she coaches local Varsity and travel lacrosse teams. Kate is a two-year survivor of a pulmonary embolism that has fueled her desire to live, and help others live, with purpose, intent and a servant's heart.