

Todd M. Gothberg

Topic Expertise:

Employee Engagement/Team Dynamics
Effective Communication
Positive Cultures
Time Management
Customer Loyalty

Todd is a sought after keynote speaker, trainer, and process facilitator who brings an expertise on a number of topics, including Exceptional Leadership, Employee Engagement, Effective Communication, Positive Cultures, Team Dynamics, Health & Wellness, Time Management, and Customer Loyalty. Todd has 33 years of practical business leadership experience and is currently Director of Organizational Development within the Adventist Health System.

Todd holds a BA in Business Management from Gettysburg College in Gettysburg, PA and an MBA with a concentration in Organizational Behavior, from Lebanon Valley College.

On the personal side, Todd is raising four beautiful daughters (27, 25, 21, 18), competed for Team USA at the World Triathlon Championships in Australia, has completed 45 marathons including his recent 16th Boston, and is a five-time Ironman finisher and a two-time Ultra Beast finisher.